

Passion

What has your attention right now? What energizes or excites you?

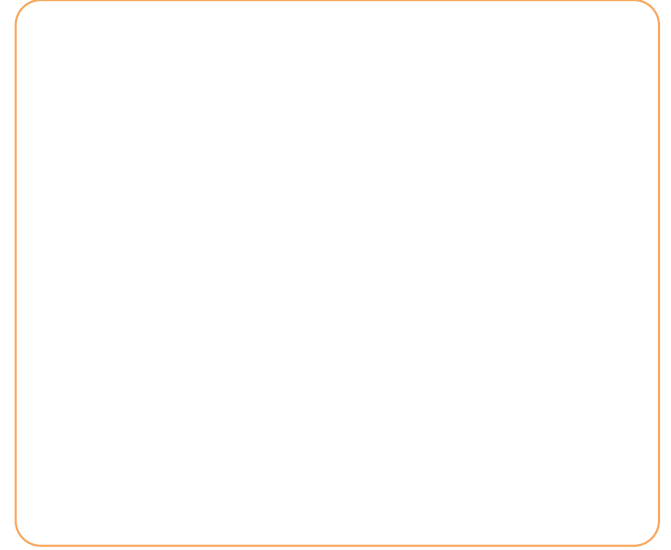

Wisdom

As you consider the opportunities, what words of challenge and encouragement have you received from God or from others?

Discontent

What most grieves or saddens you?

Opportunities

in your current context, where, how and with whom do you have opportunity to give expression to God's deepest longings for the world? (ie. Whom do I feel called to serve?)

Needs

Where do you see needs that intersect with your passion and discontent?

Passion Audit

- 1 Begin this exercise with a prayer of welcome to the spirit. Invite God to make you aware of your deepest passions, and the unique and specific areas he is calling you.
- 2 Use a timer to help you flow through the exercise, giving yourself 5 minutes per section.
- 3 Once you have completed all the sections, allow yourself a final five minutes to journal final reflections, conclusions, observations, and connections, as you bring it all together.
- 4 End with a prayer of gratitude.
